FREE FALL MOVIE SERIES: FRIDAY FRIGHT NIGHTS

Coming to you this October, Friday Fright Nights will feature a “scary” movie to be held at the Fountain Valley Recreation Center, 16400 Brookhurst Street. Grab your chairs, blankets and your friends and be prepared to get scared! On Friday, October 14, The Sixth Sense (PG-13). Doors at 6:30pm, movie at 7pm and Friday, October 28, Gremlins (PG). Event starts at 5:30pm, movie at 7pm.

For movies rated PG-13, all viewers must be at least 13 years of age or older or accompanied by an adult. Please bring school I.D. or general identification for proof of age. Pizza and drinks will be sold prior to the start of the movie.

Prior to the last movie, a Trunk or Treat event will take place in the parking lot next to Fields B and C off of the entrance at Brookhurst and Heil. Trunk or Treat is in honor of Red Ribbon week, supporting safe alternatives for local youth. Youth of all ages are encouraged to bring a sack to collect treats. Free games, trunk or treating, and a movie will make up the activities for the evening. The event will start at 5:30pm and the movie will begin at 7pm. The event is FREE, so come out with your family and friends to spend an evening getting spooked!
