FREE FALL MOVIE SERIES: THE SIXTH SENSE

Save the date on Friday, October 14 for Fountain Valley Recreation and Community Services Friday Fright Night featuring The Sixth Sense. Grab your chairs, blankets and your friends to enjoy this movie at the Fountain Valley Recreation Center at 16400 Brookhurst Street.

Malcom Crowe (Bruce Willis) is a child psychologist who receives an award on the same night that he is visited by a very unhappy ex-patient. After this encounter, Crowe takes on the task of curing a young boy (Haley Joel Osment) with the same ills as the ex-patient. This boy "sees dead people". Crowe spends a lot of time with the boy (Cole) much to the dismay of his wife. Cole's mom is at her wit's end with what to do about her son's increasing problems. Crowe is the boy's only hope. (PG-13, 107 minutes).

This week's feature film is rated PG-13. All viewers must be at least 13 years of age or older or accompanied by an adult. Please bring school I.D. or general identification for proof of age. Doors will open at 6:30pm and the movie will begin at 7pm. Pizza and drinks will be on sale prior to the start of the movie. The event is FREE, so come out with your family and friends to spend an evening being spooked!
